ANOTHER SUICIDE.

Dr. Richardson's Scheme For Making the Great Leap.

His Ingenious Invention—The Queer Contrivance in Which He Will Take to the Water—His Calculations and the Possibilities of His Success—Another Crank Who is Evidently Bent on Mischief to Himself.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Dr. Richardson, a Canadian gentleman of means, scientific attainments and inventive mind, resident in Washington, has invented a machine or device, by the aid of which he proposes to go over Niagara Falls. He is enthusiastic and proposes to accomplish the undertaking without personal injury to himself.

In conversation with an American Press reporter the Doctor said:

"I have made up my mind and shall make the trial within a month. I returned from Niagara and am more than ever convinced that I can go over the cataract unhurt. If you have ever been at the falls you will remember that about half a mile above Goat Island there is a prominent bluff on the Canadian side. It is about 150 feet high and is very nearly perpendicular. One day last week I adjusted my apparatus and jumped off. My position in descending was like this (the Doctor took hold of his little boy, midway between his head and his heels, and lifted him from the ground by way of illustration). I descended in a direct line, as steadily and at about the same speed as an ordinary hotel elevator moves. The water was only four feet deep at the base of the bluff, and I had no trouble in making a safe landing.

"I use a silken bag, of elliptical form, seven feet long and four feet through. This bag will retain gas like a balloon, and, in fact, it is a species of balloon. By experiment I have ascertained how many cubic feet of gas it takes to allow me to sink through the air at a moderate velocity, and I have made my balloon just large enough to serve the purpose. On the day I make the attempt I will inflate the bag with gas, confine it in a strong netting, which will be gathered as a balloon netting is gathered, at the ring. The bag will be attached to a heavy leather belt four inches wide, which will be fastened around my waist, large pieces of cork resting against either side, and held into place by the same belt. The ring by which the balloon will be fastened to me, or by which I will be fastened to the balloon, will be just over the base of the spine. When the connection is made I will be ready to make, the trial. Everything in readiness, I will be rowed to a point in the river near Goat Island, where I will jump overboard and float toward the falls."

"When I reach the edge of the rocks over which the waters fall, I will be moving as rapidly as the water, and as my body will be very much lighter it will shoot right out into the air, and will descend five or six yards beyond the wall of water, as you describe it. When I reach the water below, I will float down to the spot where Captain Webb jumped in the other day, and strike out for the Canadian shore."

"I have no wish to commit suicide, or take what I consider serious risks. I do not intend to make a public announcement of the date of my trial, but I will know in a day or two when it will be. I think it can be done, and I will demonstrate the practicability of my scheme before the setting of August's last sun."

That Dr. Richardson is in dead earnest there is little doubt, and he is bent on trying what will appear to the great mass of people as a foolhardy experiment. His movements from now until the first of September will be watched with great interest.

A BOLD ROBBERY.

A Burglar Gets Away With $400 and a Watch.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 9.—An unknown person climbed up on the awning supports in front of Fred Heinis' saloon, 202 Elm street, and entered an open window in the second story into a room where Heinis was asleep with his wife. He took a pair of pants and vest belonging to Heinis, containing about $400 cash and a gold watch worth $75, and escaped without awakening anybody. The loss was not discovered until 9:30 in the morning, when Heinis awoke. The pants and vest were afterward found in the backyard of Blackwell's dry goods store, on Fifth street, where they had evidently been thrown by the thieves. The money and watch were gone. The imprint of two bare feet on the window sill, made by the thief in climbing into the room, are the only traces he left.

A HORRIBLE VENGEANCE.

The Brutal Conduct of a Tough Texas Gang.

WACO, TEX., Aug. 9.—A horrible cutting affray occurred near Martin Saturday evening between Hope Bennett, a former Deputy Sheriff, and three other negroes. The affair originated in a quarrel in town over a woman, the three latter swearing they would kill Bennett before Sunday. Providing themselves with new razors they mounted their animals and followed Bennett, who was on his way home. Riding up behind him they made the onslaught. Foster severed the biceps of his left arm. Bennett jumped from his horse, followed by Foster and Bradshaw, who renewed their work with their razors while Webb held their horses. After gashing him up to their satisfaction, they left him for dead. Bennett was discovered and taken to Martin for treatment, and now lies at the point of death. Bradshaw is still at large. He not received twenty-five wounds.

BOUNCING MISSIONARIES.

Summary Disposition of Two Canting Mormon Tramps.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 9.—Two seedy-looking, middle-aged men tramped into the town of Chester, Sunday, and registered at a hotel as "C. D. Robinson, Idaho Territory," and "Henry Miller, Utah Territory." The only baggage they carried was a grip-sack and an umbrella apiece. They were unobtrusive in their manner, but it was apparent from their conversation that they were men of intelligence. They did not indicate their mission in any way until that night after supper, when they distributed among the guests of the house a pamphlet entitled, "Doctrines of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints: Its Faith and Teachings. By Elder John Morgan." They stated that they were elders of the Mormon Church and that it was their desire to preach in town the next night if they could get an audience.

The news was soon spread on the streets that two Mormon preachers were in town, and considerable excitement prevailed for a time. The young men held a meeting, at which time a committee of three was appointed, who forthwith waited upon the Mormon apostles, informed them that the climate of Chester did not agree with "Latter-Day Saints," and intimated to them in unmistakable terms that if they did not make themselves scarce around those parts within twelve hours, they would be treated to a suit of tar and feathers.

Before retiring that night Elders Robinson and Miller settled their hotel bills, and in the gray dawn of the next morning they folded their gripsacks and umbrellas and silently stole away, counting the crossties on the railroad track in the direction of North Carolina.

These worthies have been operating in North Carolina for the past year, during which time they have made many converts, who have been sent out to Utah. This, however, was their first attempt at proselytism in the Palmetto State. They have generally steered clear of towns, preaching their pernicious doctrines in the most benighted sections of the country, selecting the most ignorant and immoral classes for hearers, and conducting their meetings with great secrecy.

TARRED AND FEATHERED.

Striking Testimonial of the Drift of Public Sentiment.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 9.—The village of Castleton, situated on the Hudson, about seven miles below this city, was on Saturday the scene of unusual excitement. Over 100 residents took outraged law into their own hands, and tarred and feathered one Albert Voss. Voss, an educated German and a handsome man, came to Castleton four years ago, and became a boarder in the house of Henry Hoffman, whom he had known in the old country. He obtained employment in the postal-carrier factory located in this point, while his host is a laborer in the ice-houses that line the river bank.

Mrs. Hoffman is a handsome blonde, aged about thirty years, of good figure and gay in disposition. The sober villagers thought there were improprieties between Voss and his handsome hostess soon after his advent to the household. Hoffman, a naturally stolid, had no suspicion, or, having it, made no sign. Last week Voss induced Mrs. Hoffman to leave her husband and children, and the guileful couple took up their residence in a house directly opposite the deserted home. This excited the German villagers, and Thursday they visited the couple and warned Voss to leave town immediately. Voss and Mrs. Hoffman secretly returned to Hoffman's house, where Mrs. Hoffman secreted him in the garret and again took up her home with husband, who did not know that Voss was in the house.

Saturday night the outraged public proceeded to Hoffman's house, and, being denied admission, forced an entrance. Voss was found, was covered with lime discovered in his hiding place, and after being marched to the village line was partially stripped and covered with tar and feathers. He fought desperately and subdued two of his tormentors, but was finally subdued. Threats of hanging were made and a rope was even procured, but cooler counsels prevailed, and the offender was marched out of town and warned of severe penalties in case he should return.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

Their Reunion in Texas and Its Features.

McKINLEY, TEX., Aug. 9.—The second and last day of the Confederate reunion was even a greater display than the first. The attendance was greatly increased, numbering 50,000. The speech of General Lewis was generally condemned by the notables present, still it took with the crowd. Lewis was cheered to the echo while speaking, and the supposition is that the enthusiasm carried him beyond the bounds of discretion. The only thing out of the ordinary run was the speech of General Cable, who declared England and America can never have more than an unnatural friendship, while the American and purple clad are linked by hooks of steel. He hoped to live long enough to lead ex-confederates under the stars and stripes in a contest against England.

A FIVE-CENT CYCLONE.

For several years Prof. Douglas, of Ann Arbor university, has been manufacturing cyclones. He does it by suspending a large copper plate by silken cords. This plate is charged heavily with electricity, which hangs down like a bag, underneath, and is rendered visible by the use of arsenious acid gas, which gives it a green color. The formation is a miniature cyclone as perfect as any started in the clouds. It is funnel shaped, and whirls around rapidly. Passing this plate over a table, the five-cent cyclone snatches up copper cents, pens, pith balls, and other objects, and scatters them on all sides.

JERSEY'S SENSATION.

A Mother and Child Sacrificed to a Superstition.

The Shrieks That Came at Midnight From the Tortured Victims—A Strange Colony of Russian Jews—Rumored Causes of the Tragedy—Death of the Little Child—An Extraordinary Affair.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 9.—No one of the horrors which occasionally crop out in the interior of New Jersey has been more wrapped in mystery than the cremation of a woman and her two children, at Estellville, six miles below May's Landing, the county seat of Atlantic county, and eighteen miles from this place. The facts became known at the railway station at May's Landing, thirty-six hours after the tragedy had occurred. It took place in a settlement of thirty-seven families of Russian Jews, who were colonized at Estellville a year ago by General Burbridge. From midnight Friday until Sunday morning the tortures of the mother and her daughter seem to have been hushed up among these people. A group of them appeared at the depot with a wagon, in which lay the woman and the girl. Both were burned almost into unconsciousness, and it was developed that the purpose of their compatriots was to take them to a Philadelphia hospital, although none of the party would or could speak English. It finally transpired that Friday midnight awful shrieks had been heard from the small cabin occupied by the wife and children. Ivan Nitowski, the husband, had either deserted his family, or wandered away in search of work. The cabin was found in flames, the six-year-old boy burned to an armless, legless trunk, the mother rolling in agony in the sand, the eight-year-old daughter cringed to unconsciousness. The mother was a beautiful young Jewess of 28 years of age. Her long, black hair was singed over her shoulders, her eyes fixed in a mad delirium. She would say nothing of the cause of the fire. The neighbors cannot give no explanation. There are Russian Jews from this colony now begging their way in this vicinity. Their silence is, in some cases, more than of cunning than stupidity. One of them hints that the woman sacrificed herself, while another intimates that her neighbors were unfriendly. It seems that the people are many of them given over to degrading superstitions. Their belief in witches closely resembles the voodooism of the African blacks. Mrs. Nitowski was driven to desperation by hunger and thirst. She did not make her wants known to the outside inhabitants of Estellville, many of whom are humane and intelligent people, that being a very old Jersey settlement. The last sacrifice to the demand of superstition, the phantom of hunger and desolation Nitowski's wife and children were the cremation of the wretched victims. During Saturday night the same terrible silence was preserved by the mother. After lying on the hard bench in the railway station for seven hours, Sunday morning the little girl's tortured life went out. The mother was removed to the house of a man named Smith Spence, where she lies at the point of death. All efforts to draw from her any solution of the shadow overhanging the midnight burning seem unavailing. This General Burbridge is said to be the one whose refusal of a Southerner's challenge in Washington about a year ago excited such favorable newspaper comment. The colonists seem shiftless and densely stupid.

A SUSPICIOUS CRAFT.

A Schooner Laden With Ammunition and Guns.

RICHMOND, VA., Aug. 9.—Captain S. H. Dodd, of the schooner E. G. Irvin, arrived Saturday from New York, and was arrested on a charge of attempted violation of the neutrality law, the vessel being also seized. The grounds for the charge are that the vessel has on board, not to be unloaded here, 150 carbines, pistols, cartridge boxes and ammunition in large quantities, two cannon with wheels, axes, etc., all new. The information which led to the arrest of the captain and seizure of the vessel was given by one of the crew, who states that when the schooner was off Hog Island she lay to and signalled for two days for some other vessel, which failed to put in an appearance. The captain then brought the vessel to Richmond. The case will be investigated by the United States Commissioner, to which time Captain Dodd was bailed.

FARMER'S TERRIBLE DEATH

A Farm Hand Gored to Death By a Furious Bull.

ATLANTIC HIGHLANDS, N. J., Aug. 9.—Ex-Sheriff Thompson, of Monmouth county, N. J., who resides near the Atlantic Highlands, is the owner of noted cattle stock, which he keeps on his farm, among them a Derby bull. This animal has for a long time been a source of great trouble to the farm hands. At times they were unable to manage the beast. Saturday Richard Canary, for many years in the employ of the ex-Sheriff, attempted to drive the bull into the stable. It turned upon him, and, after chasing Canary around the barnyard, caught him just as he reached the fence, the bull's horns entering his left leg below the calf, and ripping it open up to the hip. At the same time it hurled Canary into the air. Another workman ran up to help Canary, when the bull caught him and threw him over the fence. A third farm hand came to the rescue with a pitchfork, when the bull made for him, but he ran the pitchfork into him, causing the bull to turn and seek shelter in the stables. Canary was picked up and carried into the house, but died in great agony.

BIG CROPS.

Iowa's Wheat Yield the Biggest for Many Years.

DES MOINES, IA., Aug. 9.—The wheat yield is the largest known in this section for years. It was well headed, stood heavy, and was free from rust. Some farmers near Norwalk, who have thrashed say that it will average 20 to 25 bushels to the acre. One field of winter wheat will make 30 bushels to the acre without any doubt. The oat crop is also as good as has ever been known. The fear which for a long time was entertained by farmers as to corn has gradually been dispelled. After the early summer rains the corn was small, and it was with difficulty that the rows could be distinguished from the weeds. Since that time the weeds have been cleared out, and now the corn is much higher than a man's head and has begun tasseling. The stalks are large and healthy, and many will bear two large ears. If the weather from now to maturity is favorable, it will make from 70 to 80 bushels to the acre. The above will apply to all parts of Iowa north of the Rock Island Road.

IS IT MURDER?

The Startling Story Told By a Small Boy.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9.—The death of Sebastian Appel, aged fifty-one years, which occurred at his home on Lawrence street, was surrounded by such mysterious circumstances that the coroner ordered an autopsy, and if necessary will have an analysis of the stomach made. Appel was a widower with six children, the oldest of whom—Mary, aged twenty—acted as housekeeper for the family. A fourteen-year-old son testified before the coroner that some months ago the whole family was taken sick after eating pie made by his sister and that on Saturday two young sisters were sick at the same time that his father was. Appel suffered severe pains in his stomach and died eight hours after being taken ill. Neighbors stated that Appel and his daughter Mary did not get along well together and that he had several times ordered her to leave the house.

TERRIBLE ABUSE.

Extraordinary Cruelty to a Helpless Little Girl.

BOSTON, MASS., Aug. 8.—A pretty girl, now 15 years old, named Jennie Harding, who was taken by Mrs. Lucy Pyer, a widow, who keeps a boarding house, from the Little Wanderer's Home from Boston about eight years ago, claimed that she has been persistently abused at times ever since. Her story is as follows: On Saturday last she was ordered to bring down the lamps. She thought she had brought them all, but it was found that she had left some of them, and Mrs. Pyer asked her why she had not brought them all. She replied that she had, when Mrs. Pyer struck her in the face, and taking a poker from the stove struck her with that, and then caught her by the hand and burned her arm in several places, one of the marks being five inches in length and half an inch wide. At one time she stripped her entirely naked and tied her hands behind her with a clothes-line and her feet with a rag to a rocking chair, and kept her there all night. On Saturday last, after the burning, Jennie left the house and walked up the railroad track to the house of a lady who brought her to the police station, where her story was told. She was kindly cared for. A warrant has been issued for Mr. Pyer's arrest, and she will be before the court.

GERMAN-MEXICAN TREATY.

What the Department of State Officials Have to Say.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Officials at the State Department deny any knowledge whatever of a sensational story to the effect that the German empire had entered into an offensive and defensive alliance with the Republic of Mexico; that if such a scheme was on foot that no information had been sent to the department by the United States Minister at the City of Mexico, and that Mr. Morgan was too vigilant to overlook such an important matter. If there had been any communication on the subject it had been addressed to Secretary Frelinghuysen personally, but the letters did not appear among the archives of the department. The Secretary would undoubtedly have telegraphed some instructions if such a story had any foundation, and until he was heard from it would be treated as idle gossip.

A Wife Mistaken for a Burglar.

DETROIT, MICH., Aug. 9.—At Grand Rapids, a conductor on the Grand Rapids & Yuland Railway, having received a visit by burglars at his house on Monday night, was prepared for a second visit, and awaited them in the kitchen. His wife awakened by a noise on the street, arose and passed through the room. Her husband, mistaking her for a burglar, fired, the ball taking effect in her forehead and coming out near the right ear. She is alive, but unconscious, with slight hopes only of her recovery.

RUNNING BIRD HANGED.

Execution of a Prominent Cherokee Indian.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., Aug. 9.—Running Bird, a Cherokee Indian, was hanged at Tulequah, Cherokee Nation, for the murder of Running Water, another Indian, in Delaware District, Indian Nation, August 20, a year ago. Running Bird belonged to a reputable Indian family. He was intelligent and courageous. He slew his victim, in a moment of intense passion, having been goaded to desperation by the taunts of his enemy. A bitter feeling had long existed between the men, and the fatal outcome of the feeling was more than once predicted. Chief Bushyhead was appealed to in behalf of Running Bird, but declined to interfere, and the condemned expiated his crime.

SOME STRANGE CRANKS

The Remarkable Habits of a Family Near Omaha.

Self-Entombed in a Lovely House—The Mystery of Who and What They Are—Their Method of Living—What Their Grocer and Doctor Say.

OMAHA, Aug. 9.—For some time past there have been rumors of a family residing on one of the hills of South Omaha under remarkable circumstances, it being stated that they never left the house under any circumstances, and that they were cranky in many other respects. A reporter investigated the matter and found that not only were the reports true, but that these even were more than it had been related.

The family consists of the father and mother and seven children. They reside in a neat and ordinary looking cottage, which is somewhat isolated from its neighbors, being on a cross street as yet but sparsely built up. In this house the man and wife have lived alone for nearly ten years, and all their children have been born here. More than that, they have never been permitted to see the outside world at all, and neither parents nor children have ever stirred outside of the house except at night, when they occasionally walk out in the dark of the moon. They have denied steadily for ten years with one grocer, who furnishes their supply of meat and fuel as well as of provisions, and it was from him that a pointer was obtained under promise of secrecy. He sends the supplies up in the evening, and they are taken in through a window in the rear of the house, so that he has never seen any of the family. The bill is paid regularly once a month, and there seems to be no lack of money to support the family, who never kick about any bills.

Another curious freak of this curious family is that they keep a coffin in the house for each member of the family, and order a new one as often as it is increased in number. These coffins are procured from some point in the East, and are all of the size for adults, so that they will be large enough whether the owner dies at an early age or at maturity. They are stored in the attic of the cottage, and are kept ready for use at all times.

The physician who has attended the family at necessary periods has done so regularly ever since they began this curious life in Omaha. He has never seen one of them, though he has ushered all the children into the world. He is as much mystified as any one, but as he always receives a fee of $25 in gold for each visit, however trifling the ailment, he is well satisfied to keep mum. The doors and windows of the residence are kept closed in the warmest weather, and to the neighbors and passers-by it seems to be a vacant house.

Who the parties are or what is meant by this living entombment is something known to no one in the city, and what secret cause exists for so unusual a way of living is a question to be answered by speculation only, but it certainly is a heathenish act, which ought not to be allowed to exist in this enlightened era.

About twenty-five members of the distinguished party to accompany Rufus Hatch on his trip to the Yellowstone Park, on Wednesday visited Ward's and Blackwell's Islands, and Long Branch and Coney Island.

Two young men, sons of Senators Geo. W. Allen and Donald McInnis, left Barrie, Ont., in a boat Saturday for a camping ground four miles distant, on Kemperfeldt Bay, and are not since heard from, and it is supposed were drowned.

The Minneapolis millers, who met representatives of the Northwestern roads to arrange for lower rates to the East because of ruinous terms by way of Duluth, returned home without accomplishing their purpose.

Mrs. Fanny Sprague, mother of ex-Governor Sprague, has accepted the offer of the Union Company which bought her homestead, to lease it to her during her life at $1 per year. She accepts upon the advice of Governor Butler, her counsel.

In Hamburg, Pa., Wednesday night, Oscar Miller, aged eighteen, promanaging with Kate Schimbach, aged sixteen, proposed marriage. She refused, and he immediately shot her seven barrel revolver into his own heart, mouth and chest. He may recover.

Bernard Phillips, a stock broker and prominent politician of Mauch Chunk, Pa., is arrested, charged with the embezzlement of about $800, intrusted to him by J. C. Rutter, President of the Miners' Bank of Summit Hill. He was formerly recorder of deeds for Carbon county.

New York dispatches say there is no change in the telegraph war. There was no cutting of wires since last report, and Western Union business is going on smoothly. The strikers are still confident of success, and exhibit no indication of weakening.

It is now believed that Rev. Emil Karpowski who was reported to have decomped of Kensington, Ill., with several hundred dollars church funds, has been murdered. His railroad ticket and several small personal articles have been found in a thicket near Pullman, and there are evidences of a struggle having taken place near by.

A fire in Brockton, Mass., originating in Hinkley's bowling alley, in the center of a cluster of frame buildings, spread so rapidly that it was difficult to save any of the property. Several families and a number of business firms were burned out. The losses aggregate $35,000; insurance, $28,000. Volney O. Ramson, aged 20, was arrested, charged with setting the fire.

UNDER the new running arrangement on the K. C. and C. O. Railroads. The freight and passenger traffic that heretofore passed through Lexington, is now given to Winchester and Paris. Lexington is "side-tracked" completely by the new arrangement, and, of course, the Lexingtonians are "kicking" badly on account of it. Whether they have any just cause for doing so, we will not say. It's not our fight, but we will, however, say this much, that they are doing no more than the citizens of any other town would do under the circumstances. "What can't be cured," however, "must be endured."

JOSEPH STOUT was hung at Rockville, Ind., Wednesday last, for the murder of Taylor Dunbar last November. Dunbar was a huckster, and lived at Darlington, Ind. On the day of the killing Stout accompanied him on a trip through the neighboring country. After having gone about four miles into the country, Stout knocked him down while passing through a lonely swamp, and then finished him by firing two loads of shot into his head. Stout was arrested two days afterwards, and was tried and sentenced. Gov. Porter was appealed to for a commutation of the sentence, but refused, and let the law take its course. The killing was for the purpose of robbery, but five dollars was all Stout found on his victim.

Railroad Aid Bonds.

The Supreme Court of the United States has added another to the long list of decisions showing their determination to compel towns and counties to pay their honest debts, and not crawl out of them through some technical back door. The town of Amboy, Lee county, Ill., issued in 1872, bonds in payment of subscriptions voted by the town to the stock of the Chicago and Rock River Railroad Company. Subsequently some of the taxpayers obtained from the Circuit Court of Lee county an injunction restraining the levy and collection of taxes to pay principal and interest of said bonds. Certain of the bondholders then brought action in the United States Circuit Court against the town, and obtained judgments. The town clerk concealed himself to avoid the process of the court, and the County Clerk refused to compute and assess taxes to meet the judgment without the certificate of the town clerk, required by law. The bondholders then united in an application to the Circuit Court for a mandamus to the county clerk to comply with their demands, and on the matter being carried by writ of error to the Supreme Court, that court held that all the directions of the various acts of Assembly as to certificates, &c., among the town and county officials was merely directory, and that the amount of debt having been ascertained by the judgment of the Circuit Court, it was enough, and as these bondholders were not affected by the injunction of the county court, the mandamus must be awarded, and the town officers must levy the tax as directed by the United States Circuit Court.—Exchange.

LITERARY TREASURE.

Alleged Discovery of a Very Ancient Version of the Book of Deuteronomy.

London Cable Letter.

A Mr. Shapira, of Jerusalem, a bookseller and dealer in antiquities, has just deposited in the British Museum fifteen slips of black sheepskin leather, on which are written, in characters similar to those on the celebrated Moabite stone, portions of the book of Deuteronomy differing materially from the received version. The date of the slips is the ninth century before Christ, or sixteen centuries older than any authentic manuscript of any part of the Old Testament. Mr. Shapira bought them from an Arab, and he asks for them $5,000,000 from the British Museum. If genuine, the interest and importance of the discovery cannot be overrated, and so far as the variations in the sacred text are concerned, there is promise of one of the greatest that scholars have entered upon. The decalogue furnishes a good example for comparison with the received version. I quote Shapira's record:

I am God, thy God, which liberated thee from the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. Ye shall have no other Gods.

Ye shall not make to yourselves any graven image, nor any likeness that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters under the earth. Ye shall not bow down to them, nor serve them. I am God. Your God sanctified.

In six days I have made the heaven and the earth and all that there is therein, and rested on the seventh day. Therefore rest thou also; thou and thy cattle, and all that thou hast. I am God; thy God.

Honor thy father and thy mother. I am God; thy God.

Thou shalt not commit adultery with the wife of thy neighbor. I am God; thy God.

Thou shalt not swear by my name falsely, for I visit the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of those who take My name in vain. I am God; thy God.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy brother. I am God; thy God.

Thou shalt not covet his wife, or his man servant, or his maid servant, or anything that is his. I am God; thy God.

Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thy heart. I am God; thy God.

These ten words God spake.

Dr. Ginsburg, the eminent Semitic scholar to whom Mr. Gladstone has just given fifty pounds sterling toward the production of his work on the Masorah, has accepted the above and is busy completing a translation and determining on behalf of the museum the genuineness of the fragments.

Telegraph Primer.

Detroit Free Press.

What is that Person doing in the Telegraph office? That is the Manager, and he has a right to be there. But why is he removing all those Dis-patches from the Hooks? Because there is more business than his Pings can get away with, and he is preparing to Mail the rest of the Dis-patches to their addresses. Is it a sharp trick? Yes, pretty Sharp. It enables him to sit down and Telegraph all over the country: "Hooks all clear to Detroit." But won't the People be mad at the delay of their Telegrams? Yes, my Child; but what are they going to do About it? Who is that man with the White Hat? He is a Commission Merchant, my Child. But see how Mad he is! He is red in the Face. He swears. He beats the Air with his Fists. Has Any Body come the String Game on him? No, my Child. He has just received a Telegram from one of his country customers, saying: "Car a you Nevertheless Yesterday Bushels chagrin Therefore Suddenly." And He Won't Have it That Way? No; he can't Make out Whether the Man has sent him Potatoes or wants to know the price of Oats. Hence his Cuss Words. Hence his Desire to Plug the Plug Operator. Hence his Love for the W. T. U.

THE folks who went to see the show—
Their souls with pleasure brimming,
Were taken all alike when called
To show their skill in swimming.
And as they hadn't bathing suits,
Gum overcoats and hats,
They looked for all the world just like
A lot of drowned out rats.

INDIANA watermelons have appeared in our market. They are of good quality.

HOME-GROWN nutmegs, the first of the season, were brought to town this week by the neighboring gardeners.

"CASTLE FITZGERALD" has at the present time some eight or nine guests.
There is but one white man among them.

A LARGE crowd of people from the surrounding country came to town Thursday to see O'Brien's Circus and Menagerie.

THERE'S no need of saying any more.
The only thing left for us to do now, is to sit down and wait patiently for the "coming of events."

The work of this establishment is famed for its excellence.

Ar Lexington, Wednesday, the 8th train of cars on the K. C. R. R. One of his legs was so badly injured that amputation was resorted to. It is believed that he will recover.

If you can get bargains anywhere in Maysville to-day you can obtain them of John Lovel, Market street, as he is in a decidedly generous mood on account of the arrival at his house yesterday of one of the finest girl babies that has arrived in Maysville for some time past.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla is designed for those who need a medicine to purify their blood, build them up, increase their appetite, and rejuvenate their whole system. No other preparation so well meets this want. It touches the exact spot. Its record of forty years is one of constant triumph over disease.

Mrs. SAM. LITTLEJOHN, of East Maysville, who has been very ill for several weeks past, died at the residence of her husband this morning. She was a sister of Prof. B. F. Williams, and a most estimable lady, whose death will be mourned by a large circle of friends. Notice of the funeral will be made to-morrow.

The sad intelligence was received in Maysville this morning, of the sudden death at Mt. Olivet yesterday, of Mrs.
Walter M. Chandler, a sister of Prof. B.
F. Williams, of this city. Mrs. Chandler was in Maysville on Sunday at the beside of her sister, Mrs. Sam Littlejohn, and was apparently in the enjoyment of perfect health.

The street cars were shipped from the manufacture in New York on the 3rd inst, and bills of lading have been received for them here. Ordinarily such freight should arrive in from seven to twelve days. They may therefore be expected at any minute. The track has been cleared off and everything is now in readiness for their reception. The delay in their arrival has been very annoying, but it has been out of the power of the company to have it otherwise. There has, of course, been a considerable loss to the owners of the road, by the delay, but we are satisfied a generous public will, by their patronage of the road, speedily make it up.

PERSONALS.

Miss Lutie Stanton returned to Frankfort this morning.

Mr. George Owens, of Louisville, Ky., is visiting Mrs. Keith Berry.

Miss Virginia Hunt, of Millersburg, is the guest of Miss Anna Lynch.

Mr. S. C. Boulemet, of New Orleans, is visiting Mr. Will F. Hall, of the East End.

Misses Celia Kelly and Ida Smith, of Covington, are visiting Mrs. Asher Boyce, of East Maysville.

Misses Maria and Minnie Boyd and Miss Sue Winter, of Minerva, are visiting the family of Mr. Hubbard, of Third street.

CAMP MEETING.

RUGGLES' CAMP, Aug. 9, 1883.

To-day was occupied by cottagers moving in, unpacking and stowing away goods, and arranging for the twelve days stay in the woods. A large number moved in from Mt. Carmel, Tollsboro, Maysville, and various points in the country. From Maysville we now have Mrs. Hutchins, sen., Mrs. Charles Phis-ter, Mrs. Martin and daughter, Mrs.
Morris, Mrs. L. M. Lane, Mr. William Davidson and wife. It began to rain about two o'clock p. m., and continued until four. Part of the time we had wind, lightning, thunder and hail. It rained furiously, and prevented any afternoon service.

At 8 p. m. there was a brief introductory discourse by Rev. H. C. Northcutt, to a moderate congregation. Rain had begun to fall again before service. Prospects are good for a very profitable meeting. There are but few ministers present as yet. We look for an accession tomorrow. These great rains which have so retarded our operations, have been an immense benefit to the farmers, for which we join them in devout gratitude to the great Giver. But rain or shine, we expect a very large crowd here on Sunday, the 12th inst.

PARKS HILL CAMP GROUNDS, Aug. 10.

The great crowds of Tuesday and Wednesday had departed; but there was a goodly number present on yesterday morning at the beginning of the services. The Love Feast was well attended, and was led by Rev. J. C. C. Newton.
It was an occasion of interest, and, we believe, of profit.

The children's meeting at eleven o'clock was addressed by Rev. W. F.
Tay. Text: Judges 8th and 9th. This is an interesting feature of the meetings held on these grounds. At the close Dr.
Poynter notified the children that the would talk to them at five o'clock to day on wax-chewing. About one hundred children were present at the meeting on yesterday.

At 11:15 o'clock, Dr. Hanner preached from 1st Corinthians 3rd chapter, 5th verse. The preacher dwelt especially on the ninth verse: "For we are laborers together with God; ye are God's husbandry; ye are God's building." He said we are God's farm. We are his co-workers. He is the owner and supervisor.
Human work without God is a failure.
Weak men are strong with God. The kingdom of Heaven is God's building. He is the architect and we are his day laborers. A church that waits for God to do all the work, will be a failure. So if a man will not work with God, he is lost.
It is not God's fault that empires are on their way to hell; it is the fault of human instrumentality that all men have not the gospel.

Owing to most welcome and timely rain, causing a clatter on the roof of the auditorium, there were no afternoon services.

The Woman's Missionary Society held a meeting in the evening. Mrs. True-heart read an address to the meeting, and she and Mrs. Doctor Poynter addressed the meeting. They held another meeting this morning to elect officers.

At night Rev. John Reeves preached Acts 5: 33: "And we are his witnesses of these things and so, also, is the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them who obey him." The discourse is spoken well of as a plain and truthful statement of the doctrine contained in the text.

RUGGLES' CAMP, Aug. 9, 1883.

At 2:30 p. m. yesterday, representatives of five different families left Maysville for this place. The stages were loaded with people, household goods and provisions. It began raining before we got out of the corporation, and continued all the way, except the last mile, when it let up. At Rectorville and vicinity the rain was abundant—starting the streams to flush running—and all the way, and at the camp the rain had been excellent.
It is greatly appreciated.

We found the hotel all ready for guests, under Matt Tolle's management.
Only a few cottages are yet occupied, but we look for a large accession before noon to-day. Our first service will be at 3 p.
m. to-day.

O'Brien's Circus and Menagerie.

O'Brien's circus and menagerie has come and gone, and, notwithstanding Uncle Dan Rice's assertion to the contrary last Saturday night during the performance of Nathans circus here, the men connected with it have proved themselves to be anything except 'thieves and cut-throats.' Uncle Dan in his speech last Saturday night, was very bitter in his statements concerning O'Brien and the men connected with his circus and menagerie, characterizing them as a "set of cut-throats and criminals." They proved themselves, however, to be as sober, orderly and well-behaved a set of circus-men as ever came to town.
Three or four drunken and disorderly persons were arrested, but they were citizens of the town or county. As far as the circus performance is concerned, O'Brien's equaled any that has been given here for years. A large crowd was in attendance at the evening performance, notwithstanding the rainstorm of the afternoon. We feel perfectly safe in the statement, too, that every one came away last night perfectly satisfied with the evening's entertainment.

DEPUTY MARSHAL DAWSON, arrested a drunken and disorderly negro named Green on the circus grounds about dusk Thursday evening, who didn't want to be taken to the station house at all.
Calling in two or three assistants, Dawson had the belligerent colored citizen carried to the mayor's office and dumped behind the bars in the "cooler."

THURSDAY'S RAIN STORM.

No Damage to Property, but the Circusgoers are Treated to a Free Bath.

This city and surrounding country was visited Thursday afternoon by a regular rain storm. All forenoon the sky was overcast with dark stormy-looking clouds.
About half-past two o'clock the rain began to fall in torrents. In about five minutes' time the gutters and streets in places were overflowing. The rain lasted about ten minutes longer, and when it did "let up" everything had received a thorough drenching. O'Brien's Circus and Menagerie had pitched its tents on the lot on west Second street, in the forenoon, and at the time the rain began to fall the two large tents were crowded with people who had gone to witness the performance. In a short time the water began pouring through the canvass covering. The people took up an idea that the tent was about to fall and a rush was made for the outside. It was like "jumping out of the frying pan into the fire," so far as an escape from the water was concerned. Those only who had been wise enough to take umbrellas with them, escaped a thorough drenching. The houses in the neighborhood were soon filled with the "unfortunates." Not half of them, however, could be sheltered.
When the residences and stores near at hand, had accommodated all they could,
the rest had to "stand and take it," or else wend their way up town through the falling torrents, and a sorry sight, indeed, most of them presented. The ladies looked as though they had been "dipped" in the "beautiful Ohio," or some other stream of water, and the male portion of the crowd were completely soaked from the "crown of their heads to the soles of their feet." Some of the female portion of the crowd undoubtedly presented the closest fitting costumes that had been seen on our streets for many a day, but we venture to say they were not at all comfortable. When the rain ceased to fall, the water was no more than a foot in depth on the greater portion of the ground covered by the tents of the circus and menagerie. The performance for the afternoon was, of course, ended. O'Brien's men went to work immediately to prepare the grounds for the evening performance. No damage was done their tents and no accidents to life or limb happened during the rush made for the streets by the crowd. The rain will undoubtedly do great good to the growing crops, and, no doubt, every one, except the circus-goers, are glad that it fell.

The Home Guardian.

Mr. H. Baumgarten, of Cincinnati, O., is in town organizing a division of the Home Guardian. The plan of this society is the same that has been successfully operated in London since 1828.

There are no assessments, no lodge dues and no regalia or paraphernalia required to carry on the order. A member can insure for from $500 to $3,000. Besides, by a small quarterly deposit, secure weekly benefits, in case of sickness, of from $3 to $25. The plan should be examined by those desiring to connect themselves with an organization that for safety and security, has no superior.
There are upwards of thirty divisions of the order in Kentucky.

BORN.

In this city, August 9, 1883, at 4 o'clock p. m., to the wife of Mr. John Lovel, a fine daughter.

thanks to the public for their past favors and request a continuance of the same for the new firm. 56dlw JOHN H. WILSON.

AYER'S
Ague Cure

contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any mineral nor deleterious substance whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.

WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE
to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Jund Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure, after due trial, doctors are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
Sold by all Druggists.

Rev. Father Wilds'
EXPERIENCE.

The Rev. F. P. Wilds, well-known city missionary in New York, and brother of the late eminent Judge Wilds, of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, writes as follows:

"75 E. 54th St., New York, Aug 16, 1882.
Messrs. J. C. Ayer & Co., Gentlemen:
Last winter I was troubled with a most uncomfortable itching humor affecting more especially my limbs, which itched so intolerably at night, and burned so intensely, that I could scarcely bear any clothing over them. I was also a sufferer from a severe catarrh and earachal cough; my appetite was poor, and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of AYER'S SARSAPA-RILLA, by observation of many other cases, and from personal use in former years, I began taking it for the above-named disorders. My appetite improved almost from the first dose. After a short time the fever and itching were allayed, and all signs of irritation of the skin disappeared. My catarrh and cough were also cured by the same means, and my general health greatly improved, until it is now excellent. I feel a hundred percent stronger, and I attribute these results to the use of the SARSAPARILLA, which I recommend with all confidence as the best blood medicine ever devised. I took it in small doses three times a day, and used, in all, less than two bottles.
I place these facts at your service, hoping their publication may do good.
Yours respectfully,
Z. P. WILDS."

The above instance is but one of the many constantly coming to our notice, which prove the perfect adaptability of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA to the cure of all diseases arising from impure or impurified blood, and a weakened vitality.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

cleanses, enriches, and strengthens the blood, stimulates the action of the stomach and bowels, and thereby enables the system to resist and overcome the attacks of all Scrofulous Diseases, Eruptions of the Skin, Rheumatism, Catarrh, General Debility, and all disorders resulting from poor or corrupted blood and a low state of the system.

FOREIGN.

Gladstone's Address—Egypt's Ambassadors—Cetewayo Surely Alive.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—Mr. Gladstone at the Mansion House made a more than usually important address, it being upon public topics, there was so far as the information in expressing satisfaction at the state of affairs in Ireland, and stating that amicable relations exist between England and France.

EGYPT.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—The Government is in receipt of dispatches from Cairo and Alexandria, causing fresh alarm on account of inundations threatening disaster throughout the entire Nile District. The populace is in a state of terror only exceeded by that caused by the cholera.

HAYTI.

JACAMEL, July 24.—The insurgents captured this town on the 23d of July. The attack began at 3 o'clock in the morning and in two hours the arsenal fell into their hands. The schooner Clifford of Lam-dine, Me., Captain Bragdon, was moored close to the town during the fight. The bullets from the guns frequently passed over her. Two shots struck a pile of baggage on the forward house. The Captain from the deck of his vessel could plainly see the fighting going on in the streets of the town.

ZULULAND.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—The correspondent of the Central News Company at Durban telegraphs a corroboration of the dispatch announcing that Cetewayo is alive. Mr. Grant, the British resident at that point, telegraphs that he believes the report to be true.
